

Important Information and Criteria of "Helloworld" --2018

Blockchain TRUE DApp Competition

Important information

1. The teams have the right to complete their works before the deadline of the registration, but the theme of the works cannot be changed and we take the final version that submitted before the deadlines as the entry.
2. The entries shall be submitted in the prescribed form. Entries that do not conform to the regulations will be directly eliminated.

Factors to be considered

The value of blockchain

- The works must based on TrueChain or its smart contract.
- Must be an application that based on blockchain technology and fully demonstrate the value and advantages of blockchain technology
- Compare to solutions by traditional technology, application based on blockchain technology has the speciality of irreplaceability

Technology implementation

- Reasonable code design and impeccable function design
- Stable operation, guaranteed efficiency and quality
- Sufficient security design

Business value

- The project must have great business value
- The application will be a representation of the blockchain industry and will produce sound market benefits

Application creativity

- Compared to other sophisticated projects, the project must have innovation and creativity
- The project must have more sound performance compared to other sophisticated projects of the field

Product Design

- Reasonable interactive design
- Easy to understand and operate for the users
- Wonderful user experience

Prize distributing

TrueGlobal has injected 10000 TRUE in the prize pool before the starting of the competition as the initial funding, and the prize will grow with teams joining in. After the voting, the organizer will distribute 80% of the bonus to the winning teams as the incubation funds. 20% of the prize would reward to the organizers and nodes as a mentor awards.